Look: I feel how I'm moving away, how I'm shedding my old life, leaf by leaf. Only your smile spreads like sheer stars over you and, soon now, over me. Whatever shines through my childhood years still nameless and gleaming like water, I will name after you at the altar, which is blazing brightly from your hair and braided gently with your breasts.

Cyclical slowdown in growth rate of India: ECRI

Trailers. Teasers. And more trailers. More often than not, the onslaught of pre-release buzz of big budget films seems annoying, rather than exciting. When these starry stuff fails to live up to the hype, certain small-budget movies come to the theatres with no hype nor agenda and take you for an

I’m not alone in my contempt for the FDA and Gilead’s shenanigans. Markets got very excited (briefly) this week about a study finding a Gilead Sciences drug helped coronavirus patients heal a little more quickly. But that was all the trial found: remdesivir isn’t the miracle cure that will get us all out of lockdowns tomorrow, unfortunately.
